Believe it or not, the diamante was invented just 40 years ago. It was created by an American poet named Iris McClellan Tiedt in 1969, and has become very popular in schools. Also known as a diamond poem because of its shape, there are two different types of diamantes; synonym diamantes and antonym diamantes.

First, cut large circles out of card or paper from the recycling bin. Ask your child to colour them red, blue, yellow and green, and then you can tape them to the floor. Then, using the same colours, draw hand and foot shapes on other pieces of paper or card, and colour one hand and one foot in each colour.
