Borussia Dortmund 0-4 Bayern Munich

Goals: 0-1 Upamecano 4' (assist: San'233);, 0-2 Kane 9' (assis) Tj T* B

Having failed to win any of the last six games against Bayern on home turf, Dortmund will have been eager to keep things tight early on versus Der Reko rdmeister. However, their plans were thrown out of the window as the visitors put them to the sword in the opening stages. Thomas Tuchel's side needed less than four minutes to break the deadlock, with Dayot Upamecano heading Leroy San'233's corner beyond Gregor Kobel, and they were soon two to the good when San'233 laid a pass on a plate for Kane to tap home. Die Roten displayed an intensity that was missing from their midweek DFB Cup defeat to Saarbr'252;cken, and Edin Terzi' 's men struggled to deal with it. They did improve as the half progressed, and came within inches of halving the arrears on the stroke of half-time through Donyell Malen, whose effort flied agonisingly wide of the post. However, no Dortmund supporter could really argue with the two-goal deficit at the interval.

Almost immediately after the restart, Kobel needed to produce an important stop to deny Jamal Musiala, before Noussair Mazraoui fired over from the resultant corner. Dortmund had to improve after the interval and, to their credit, they did pose more of an attacking threat. Their best opportunity fell to Marco Reus, who was only thwarted by a strong Manuel Neuer hand after striking on the turn. Bayern remained dangerous, though, and Kobel needed to be alert to keep out San'233; and Musiala following a pair of swift counter-attacks. Midway through the second period, Tuchel's team thought they had further extended their advantage, but Kane was in an offside position before assisting Musiala. However, the 30-year-old had his second of the game shortly after, sweeping home Kingsley Coman's square pass. Substitute Youssoufa Moukoko wasted a fantastic opportunity to grab a consolation, before Kane added the cherry to his and his team's display in injury time with a trademark composed finish from Aleksandar Pavlovi' 's through-ball. The result sees Bayern move within two points of Bayer Leverkusen at the table's summit, while Dortmund are now seven points adrift of top spot.
